Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0964372A2] To diversify the progress of a game and to properly manage the flows of medals, a medal game system is provided. The game system comprises a container for storing the medal, an escalator for guiding the medal in an aligned state, a mechanism for sending out the medal stored in the container toward the escalator, and a discharge mechanism for flipping the medal in the escalator out through an exit thereof.
