Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0966904A2] The plinth (3) which is mounted on the closing side (1) is used for supporting the ends of the kitchen support planes (2) integrated with other similar furniture. The plinth comprises two distinct parts (4,5). The upper part (4) is fixed to the closing side and the lower part (5) is placed in contact with ground. Between these two parts are inserted two telescopic leveling devices (6) for adjusting the distance between them.
