Abstract (en)

[origin: WO9841407A1] The invention relates to a holder (1) for a handheld device (2) for applying a correcting or adhesive substance, comprising a flat base part (3) with a fixing device located at the rear, for example an adhesive strip (10), and a frame-like accommodating part (4) for the handheld device (2) located at the front. Said accommodating part has a front wall (9) running parallel to the base part (3) and two side parts (7, 8) connected to the base part, said side parts being tapered to form a narrowing accommodating opening.
