Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9847589A1] A system and method for playing a wagering game using a wireless gaming device (20) which includes an identification code (38), wager entry apparatus for entering a wager amount (22, 24) and a transmitter (42). A receiver (30) receives the identification code (38) and the wager amount transmitted by the transmitter (42) of the wireless gaming device (20). A processor (40) in communication with the receiver (30) establishes and stores a player's account corresponding to the identification code (38) and deducts the wager amount from the player's account based on the identification code (38). The system and method further includes terminals (50).
