Abstract (en)

[origin: DE19719559A1] The invention relates to a method for assembling flexible plates (2) on a plate cylinder (1), in which the drop-in arms (12; 13) should be guided reliably into slit fastenings (4). To this end, each drop-in arm is pushed into a positioned slit fastening by means of a feed slider (14), while a second feed slider (16) serves as guide.
