Abstract (en)

[origin: US6397400B1] A body protection/support device is provided for arrangement on a body part. The device has a molded body filling of individual molded bodies (19, 20) accommodated in a receiving enclosure (11). The receiving enclosure (11) in an outer part (13) is substantially remote from the body part and is relatively rigid compared to an inner part (12), which is substantially directed towards the body part.
