Abstract (en)
A padlock which has two separate body sections (1 and 2), which pivot and lock together, by means of a cam locking shaft. The body sections have respective lateral extensions (33 and 34) having facing seats which, in the locked position of the padlock, completely encase both ends of a swivelling shackle bar (8), unifying the body sections (1 and 2) and isolating the swivelling shackle bar (8) and a locking mechanism housed in the body sections. <IMAGE>
