Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1001403A2] The arrangement is mounted near the rear upper edge of the vehicle body and has a carrier (6) in which an advertising medium (7) can be rolled and unrolled. The carrier is pivotable between loading and operating positions. In the loading position no part of the arrangement protrudes near the loading doors. The advertising medium has a clamping arrangement (8) on its end opposite the carrier for attachment to the vehicle.
