Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1008976A2] The price and product information cassette (2) is clipped into a slide (3) which in action is completely enclosed in a case (7) and the slide is divided up by stays (5) forming the price and/or information (4) compartments (6). The case should be made of transparent material on the display side and closed off at the sides by end caps (8) whose fitted pins (10) engage conformably allotted holes (9) in the case. The case has fasteners at the rear to fix the case to the shelf edge. Both case and slide are die cast components.
