Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9840280A1] The invention concerns a collapsible container with a base part (2) having at its edges a rear panel web (3), a front panel web (4) disposed opposite the latter, and two mutually facing side panel webs (5, 6). The container also comprises: a rear panel which is articulated on its underside on the rear panel web and on the top of which a lid (10) is articulated; two foldable side panels (11, 12); and a front panel (13, 14) which at least on one of its outer sides is articulated on an associated side panel. The container is characterized in that each of the side panels is articulated on its underside on the associated side panel web; and in that the front panel is divided into two front panel parts.
