Abstract (en)
[origin: FR2769845A1] The toy consists of hollow coloured plastic modules, each having a square base supporting a three-dimensional figure. The figures can be geometrical, of flora or fauna, such as animals or vegetables, objects such as aircraft, cars or trains, or people. The figures have no sharp corners or edges and have holes which allow them to be filled with a liquid, a solid such as sand or cement, or a foam. The bases have holes in them for joining together with others, and can carry designs or inscriptions of an informative or educational nature.
