Abstract (en)
There is provided a pack (13) for elongate smoking articles encased in an inner wrapping and comprising a paperboard outer container having a generally rectangular base (14), four hingedly connected side walls (15-20) which upstand from the said base, and top panel means (22) which partially closes off the top of the pack. The side walls (15-20) are substantially the same height as the smoking articles and are secured with respect to the base. Access to the smoking articles is made by way of the top panel means (22). <IMAGE>
