Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1036532A2] The wall holder has a socket (1) that can be fixed to a wall, which has a holder facing away from the wall. An insert (6), preferably a part of the sanitary object to be secure, can be inserted in the holder. A securing unit secures the insert in the holder of the socket. The securing unit has a fixing device (10), which can only be operated by an insert that is not in the holder.
