Abstract (en)
A writing stem (11) for writing instruments (10) which can give an appropriate cushion effect to the gripping thumb and fingers includes a grip section (18) formed of an elastic material. A plurality of protruding pieces (18a) that can be bent by the gripping force are formed in parallel to one another on the surface of the grip section, including a portion about 30 mm to about 40 mm behind the tip of the writing instrument, and this plurality of protruding pieces (18a) are formed over a length equivalent to about 2/3 of the overall length of the grip section in the longitudinal direction.
