Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1036972A2] The arrangement consists of a water pipe (6), a connection (3,4,5) for the pipe, a protective hose (8) around the pipe, and a connection for the hose. The hose has a detachable end sleeve (11) with seal, which is connected to the connector of a tap etc. and also surrounds the connection for the water pipe, pref. at a relative distance. The protective hose in connected independent of the water pipe, is at least partially flexible and bendable, and easy to remove.
