Abstract (en)

[origin: DE19804218A1] The invention relates to a method and a device for transferring a colour pattern on or into an object (10), using a support (12) which is printed with the colour pattern. The colour pattern is transferred from the support (12) onto an object (10) to be decorated. A gas jet (20) is used to help apply the support (12) to the object (10).
