Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1046609A1] The vehicle frame is supported on the ground by three or more wheels (5 to 7) and has a lifting frame (22) which projects up from the support off-set transversely from the vertical longitudinal centre plane (9) of the stacker (1). The lifting frame and drive seat (10) can be off-set on opposite sides from the longitudinal centre plane. The load fork (13) is off-set in the transverse direction opposite to the stagger of the lifting frame relative to same.
