Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1060993A2] The device for applying revenue stamp labels consists of a cassette (3) from which the labels are led to a label roller (1), a fastener for the delivery end of each cassette and a cassette holder (5). Each cassette is arranged vertically in the holder and can be positioned above a feed path (2) for feeding labels to the label roller. An Independent claim is included for a system for filling a cassette with a pile of labels.
