Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9952110A1] The invention relates to a juke box for playing song titles comprising a playback device (1), especially a CD player, for the song titles which are to be selected and a selection device (1) which is coupled to said playback device. The selection device is provided for selecting the song titles to be played. The invention provides that the selection device comprises an electronic computer unit (2) and an input unit (3, 4, 13) which is coupled to said computer unit and which is provided for the song titles to be selected. As a result, the juke box song titles which are to be played can be easily selected.
