Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1066781A2] The stand is disposed such that the article e.g. a shower basin (1) to be displayed is pivotally mounted inside a storage compartment (E,F,G) so that it can be swung out from it for inspection. The pivot axle for the article is positioned along the top edge of the compartment access opening. The article is secured to supports pivotally joined to the compartment.
