Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1067268A2] The window system (1) has a window pane (2) with at least two glass plates (4,5), a dry mass chamber (13) and a mounting groove (11). The mounting groove and the dry mass chamber are formed as a one-piece insert element (6). Preferably, the mounting groove is arranged between the glass plates and the dry mass chamber is near the mounting groove, on the side of the mounting groove facing away from a concealed frame (3). An Independent claim is included for a profile part for use in the window system.
