Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9834150A1] The invention concerns sunglasses with an optical glasses attachment (14) which consists of a mounting (16) for two lenses (15) and, in the region of its bridge (17), can be detachably connected to the sunglasses. According to the invention, in order to provide advantageous design conditions, the optical glasses attachment (14) comprises in its bridge (17) an opening (18) for at least one plug-in projection (10) of a securing plug-in device, said plug-in projection (10) engaging in a plug-in recess (11) in the front part (5) of the sunglasses mounting (1).
