Abstract (en)

The patent accelerates the use of automatic equipment utilized in the electronic data processing of pre-compiled coupons, consisting of an automatic and multiple loading and insertion drawer of the pre-compiled coupons to be applied on the insertion point of these coupons, with a recovery holder of the electronically elaborated coupons and relative betting slips, to be applied on the respective points of both exits. Such system is applicable to the processors in use in the lottomatic and similar betting offices. <IMAGE> <IMAGE>
