Abstract (en)
[origin: DE19819208C1] The check-out work place includes a main working plate (12) in which a horizontal, open, slot like cavity is provided to at least a serving side (14) or customer side (30). An alphanumeric keyboard (52) is provided which can be inserted (P1) in the cavity and retracted (P2). The check-out work place includes a printer (32), numeric keys (18) or machine keys including command keys (20) which can be operated from the serving side and a cash display. A customer display (46) is provided which can be viewed from the customer side. Preferably, the cavity is deeper than the keyboard and a moveable insert (50) is provided between the inserted and the retracted position. The keyboard is kept in the insert.
