Abstract (en)
[origin: DE19852137A1] The invention relates to a power operated portable grinder (10) with a grinding wheel (34, 40) driven by an eccentric drive, especially a grinding wheel coupled to an eccentric pin (26, 28), such as an eccentric grinder or finishing sander. The aim of the invention is to provide means for simplifying the production and reducing the costs of such a grinder. To this end, the portable grinder (10) has several, especially two, common eccentric pins (26, 28) of different eccentricities.
