Abstract (en)
[origin: DE19925293A1] The invention relates to a wiper blade (10) for windscreen wipers, comprising a multi-section support bracket system (12). Said support bracket system has clawed brackets (46, 48) that are connected by a joint (34) to a superior bracket (14, 16), the claws of said clawed brackets (20) gripping a wiper strip (22) by its head strip (24). According to the invention, at least one bracket (14, 16, 46, 48) has an area with defined plastic deformability in a longitudinal central plane of the support bracket system (12), between its ends.
