Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1107214A2] The present invention provides a tubular label (1) with pre-printed fixed information adapted to be wrapped around a container body (10) of a container with an inwardly facing surface (3a) of the tubular label (1) contacting the container body (10) and the pre-printed fixed information being visible from the outside of the container. The tubular label (1) includes printed arbitrary information (9) such as lottery indicia provided on the inwardly facing surface (3a) by a non-impact printer in such a manner as to be invisible through the outwardly facing surface (3b) of the tubular label (1). An elongated tubular member (15a) and method of manufacturing the same, as well as a labeled container are also provided.
