Abstract (en)

[origin: WO0013534A1] Piece tobacco products such as cigarettes and cigars are traditionally placed in packs of 10-20 pieces, sometimes 3-5 pieces, with or without any partition between each piece. It is provided to place the product in an individual shell of a material which is more dense than the tissue paper. The shell bears on its surface an image in the form of texts and/or pictures of educational, entertaining, instructive, information, teaching, or other nature, attractive to a consumer. The images may include riddles, proverbs, sayings, aphorisms, signs, wishes, parting words, puzzles, rebuses, chess tasks and etudes, conundrums. The images on shells of products incorporated in the common pack shall be various but shall be logically interconnected.
