Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1122500A2] The cooking stove has an oven space (4) closed by an oven door (3) and contained in a housing (2). An exhaust fume extractor hood (5) is situated above the oven space and swivels on a vertical axle in the housing between a recessed non-operating position, and a forward protruding operating position. The vertical axle is on the same side of the housing as the door-hinges.
