Abstract (en)

[origin: WO0022971A1] The invention relates to a method for installing a tub form that is accommodated in a tub support, for example a bath tub or a shower tub. A tub support base is first fixed on the floor and a tub support-supplementary unit is then placed on the tub support base. A part device (E', E'') of a drainage device (E) is arranged in the tub support base (4) and the tub support-supplementary unit (2), respectively.
