Abstract (en)

[origin: WO0027099A1] A method for forwarding and storing a telephone call (204) from a caller receiving a "no answer" or "busy" signal is provided. In one embodiment, the telephone call is converted to a wave file (214) for attachment as an email message (216). In a further embodiment, a facsimile message can be forwarded as an email attachment. The telephone calls and facsimile messages may be replied to by the recipient for onward forwarding to the initial caller.
