Abstract (en)
[origin: US6866287B1] A quick-fit system of a shoe on a snowboard where the heel-piece also serves as locking detents and unlocking cam for the system maintaining the shoe in its fixing element. The heel-piece is divided in its lower part into two branches each interlocked to a wing of the base by a pin. The lower part of the branches are urged to be housed in a notch with matching shape, located on the shoe or heel support linked thereto.
