Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1155635A1] Container/applicator comprising a reservoir (2) for the product (P) and an applicator (5) such as a circular sponge which picks up the product. The applicator is located inside a compactor (3) which compresses the product on the applicator's surface so that the product is retained until applied to the skin. The compactor and applicator are covered by a removable cap (4).
