Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1166972A2] A tool (10) having a frame (16), handles (22) pivotably mounted to the frame, a drive system (18) connected to the frame, and a user actuated trigger (26) pivotably connected to a first one (22L) of the handles. The drive system (18) has a longitudinally movably actuator (32). The improvement comprises a linkage (64) between an end (54) of the trigger (26) and the actuator (32) of the drive system. <IMAGE>
