Abstract (en)

[origin: US6874514B1] A cleaning liquid container for a cleaning device for cleaning objects for personal use, such as, the cutter head of a shaving apparatus. The cleaning liquid container includes an inlet, an outlet, and a filter element. In an interior of the cleaning liquid container, provision is made for a sedimentation line or flow path leading from the inlet to the outlet to allow solid particles to settle from the cleaning liquid.
