Abstract (en)

[origin: WO0059519A2] Disclosed is an active agent for human beings and animals. Said active agent is based on colostrum of human beings, sheep and/or goats. The invention also relates to a combination of active agents, whereby said combination consists of colostrum and/or colostrum extracts in the solid, liquid, pasty or microencapsulated form. The combination also consists of minerals and mineral salts, especially obtained from the Dead Sea, plant components and/or plant extracts in the solid, liquid or pasty form. The active agents are used as cosmetics, medicaments, especially for the prophylaxis and therapy of skin diseases, as an aid in infections, for strengthening the immune system, as food, as food supplements and in the pharmaceutical field or as an additive in food, cosmetics, medicaments, food supplements or drinks.
