Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1181874A1] The expanding bracelet has bars (5) which connect the links (2 - 4). Each bar has a groove near each end separating the main bar from a frusto-conical head. The heads are positioned in stepped recesses (16, 17) in the top and bottom of each link and are held in place by tubular sleeves (6) with an annular head. An Independent claim is included for a method for assembling the bracelet.
