Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1193057A1] The printer has a central device for imaging the printing plates and a transport system (3) for transporting the imaged printing plate (15) to the plate changing devices (14) of the individual type form cylinders (11). The imaging cylinder (16) which is mounted in the printing plate imaging device is large relative to the type form cylinder. The transport system can be manual or automatic.
