Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1193654A1] High speed franking machine has a printer for printing a postal imprint on a postal item (12) and a conveyor belt (16a-16d). The printer comprises two print modules (30, 34) arranged adjacent to each other. The first module is held above the conveyor belt. The second module is held in a parked position drawn back from the conveyor belt. Each module is associated with corresponding first (32) and second (36) maintenance stations.
