Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1199682A2] The method involves checking the validity of the bank notes (4) and depositing them in a bank note cassette (8) by depositing detected valid bank notes in at least one first compartment (11) of the cassette and separately depositing bank notes detected as forged or suspected in at least one second compartment (12) of the cassette. Independent claims are also included for the following: a banknote cassette and an arrangement with a cash input function.
