Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1202403A1] The cable junction has a flexible cable protection element (4) and a plug-in part (6) on at least one cable end. The plug-in part is an integral part of a head piece fixed to the cable end and protective element for fixing the cable end and protective element to the bearer (2). The counter plug part (5) is attached to the bearer. Independent claims are also included for a cable connector.
