Abstract (en)

[origin: WO0117860A1] The invention relates to a device for sticking a label (2) and/or a protective film (3) to a compact disk (5) or a credit card CD (5') or a DVD CD (5''). The labels contain individual markings which are especially suitable for the use of small quantities of compact disks (5). The inventive device consists of a flat base body (1, 1') with an even surface (7). A centrally positioned, multi-level part (8) performs several functions, especially accurately centring the labels (2) and/or the protective films (3) to be applied.
