Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1227022A2] The cableway has at least one traction cable (5) between or below the carrier cables (3, 4) to engage with the cable clips of the car running gear, and at least one station at which the clips are released and the traction cable is diverted, while the carrier cables are taken on by rigid carrier rails (8-11). The traction cable passes below the carrier cables or rails.
