Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1232704A1] All the cushions are in line when the piece of furniture is being used as a bed. The first, seat cushion (5) rests on a carriage (3) with rollers (11) facilitating movement when in chair mode. There is a stool (2) with feet (10), which is tucked away under the carriage when in chair mode. In bed mode, it supports the long second backrest cushion (8) and the short third backrest cushion (9). In seat mode, the cushions are nearly vertical, with the short cushion resting on the seat cushion, and the long cushion extending past the short cushion, nearly to the floor.
