Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1238602A2] Stacking case comprises a box- or dish-shaped first housing (14, 14') and a preferably likewise essentially box- or dish-shaped second housing (18, 18'). A first connecting device (28) is fixed to the first housing and a second connecting device (30) is fixed to the second housing. A detachable connection is produced between the first housing and the second housing to form a transport unit consisting of the two cases.
