Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1239228A2] The hood has a vapor shield and a lighting fitting in or on the hood shield casing. There is at least one lighting body in the hood shield casing (2), serving as a light source, and a light guide element (5) fitted to it. The light output surfaces (e.g. 5.1) of the light element project into an outer region of the casing.
