Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1239238A1] The heater (2) has at least one opening (8) to which a heater is attached. Each opening is positioned opposite a fixture opening (9) through which leads a fixture pipe (14) which, together with a fixture arrangement (15) protrudes out of the opening in the heater. The fixture pipe in the area of the fixture opening rests against the housing (3) to form a seal. A supply pipe is attached to at least one supply opening.
