Abstract (en)
[origin: WO0145223A1] An installation (10) comprises an aerial line (12), for example an ADSS cable, suspended from a plurality of suspension locations (14) provided on or by structures which extend from ground level (18). In order to bar access to the line to climbing animals such as rodents which may damage the line rotatable bodies (20) are provided on the structures and/or the line adjacent thereto.
