Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1245352A1] The basic body (2) of the plane(1) has a flat application surface (6) and is fixed to the handle (3). A slanting knife blade (8) is contained in the basic body and goes through an opening (7) in the basic body. The thin knife-blade has an curved cutting edge, and has a central part whose cutting edge part (10) runs parallel with the application surface of the basic body. Two side parts (11,12) are angled into the opening in the basic body.
