Abstract (en)
[origin: WO0150915A1] A component system for making up fittings, furniture, and the like has as main components a sheet of grate metal (11) with two parallel folded edges (13, 14) and a distance block (16) that fits between the ends of two such sheets put together. The distance block has holes (17, 18) that permit for the screwing together of the two sheets and holes (21, 22) that permit for the fixing of one end of the two sheets to one side of two other sheets screwed together in the same way.
